SUBJECT INDEX TO ARTICLES IN

MUSCOGIANA,

VOLUMES 1-9 (1989-1998)

By Callie B. McGinnis,

assisted by Rebecca V. Adkins

This index provides subject access to ten years of Muscogiana. Articles are indexed under broad subject headings. Although some generic subject headings are used, most headings relate to aspects of Columbus history and genealogy. Articles treating non-Columbus locales are indexed under the geographic name of the locale. There are no cross-listings; an article is listed only once—under the main subject that it treats. Under each heading, articles are listed in chronological order by publication date.

Please note that there is a personal name index in the back of each issue of Muscogiana. As yet a cumulative personal name index to all issues has not been published.

SOME EARLY MARRIAGES IN THE COLUMBUS, MUSCOGEE COUNTY, GEORGIA, AREA, AS RECORDED IN JOHN H. MARTIN,
*COLUMBUS, GEO., FROM ITS SELECTION AS A 'TRADING TOWN' IN 1827
TO ITS PARTIAL DESTRUCTION BY WILSON'S RAID IN 1865.*
(Columbus, GA.: Thos. Gilbert, Book Printer and Binder, 1874.)

Marriage records constitute a major source for genealogical research. Muscogee County, Court of Ordinary, Marriage Books A and B (1838-1845), abstracted some years ago by the Lizzie Rutherford chapter, UDC, are available in typescript in the Genealogy Room, Bradley Library, Columbus, GA. Another significant source of marriage records was compiled by Buster W. Wright, Abstracts of Marriages Reported in the Columbus (Georgia) Enquirer, 1832-1852 (Columbus, GA: By the Author, 1980). This compilation covers Harris, Troup, Talbot, Heard, Meriwether, Marion, Early, and Stewart in addition to Muscogee. Muscogee marriages, 1838-1850, may also be found in 37,000 Early Georgia Marriages, published by Joseph T. Maddox and Mary Carter (Albany, GA, 1975). An additional source for a few pre-1838 marriages is John H. Martin's 1874 history of Columbus. Martin relied upon newspaper files but indicated that the years 1835 and 1836 were completely missing. Beginning in 1838, he could consult courthouse records; consequently only 12 marriages of 1838 and one of 1839 are in Martin but not in the courthouse book. Those marriages he collected are grouped alphabetically below (the figure in parentheses is the page number in Martin's book).
